The world must be made safe for democracy. Its peace must be planted upon the tested foundations of political liberty. We have no selfish ends to serve. We desire no conquest, no dominion. We seek no indemnities for ourselves, no material compensation for the sacrifices we shall freely make. We are but one of the champions of the rights of mankind. We shall be satisfied when those rights have been made as secure as the faith and the freedom of nations can make them.

President Woodrow Wilson, asking Congress for the power to declare war, 2 April 1917

As the United States marched into war with Germany in 1917, no community was untouched by the events to come. Men, women, and children all did their part to ensure the success of the war efforts. With the establishment of Call Field in August of that tumultuous year, Wichita Falls became a frenetic and essential part of the conflict.

Join the Kell House Museum this Fall, as we explore this turbulent time in our history with our exhibit: A League of Honour: Wichita Falls & World War I.

A special wine & cheese preview of the exhibit will be held during the September After Hours Artwalk on Thursday, September 6th from 6 to 9 p.m. The exhibit will run through Armistice Day, Sunday, November 11th.

Museum hours: Weekdays 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., Weekends 2 to 4 p.m. The Museum is closed on Wednesdays. To schedule a group tour of the exhibit, please contact the Kell House at (940) 723-2712 or KellHouse1909@yahoo.com.
